Re: Change to HARC Response Times

Dear Residents,

Please be advised that the Homeowners Architectural Review Committee (HARC) has changed the response times for building plans to 30 days.

Given the current amount of projects and extensive construction taking place in Old Fort Bay currently, we ask that you make preparations for this extended time frame by allowing sufficient time for the Committee to review your plans.

Please also review the attached checklist of plans required for construction projects in HARC. The presentation of all plans at the initial review stage will also result in fewer delays in securing approvals on your project.

Thank you,

Sonya Alvino
